

Prelude to the Battle of Cedar Creek

Living-History Program • Saturday, August 29

Saturday, August 29 • 1–5 PM

Museum & Visitor Center, 8437 Valley Pike, Middletown, VA 22645

Admission: Free!

Step into the Shenandoah Valley in 1864 and experience the tension-filled months leading to the Battle of Cedar Creek, told through the voices of those who lived it.

Hear Five Perspectives from 1864

- Gen. Jubal Early (Confederate): Strategy and movement into the Valley. (Mike Sipes)
- Gen. Philip Sheridan (Union): The Federal counter-campaign. (James Standard)
- Civilian Witness: The 1864 burning of a home farm and war in the Valley. (Tabitha Rogers)
- Union Soldier: Invading the Valley: A soldier's account of the Burning. (John Myers)
- Confederate Cavalry: 1st Maryland Cavalry Action 1864 (Will Royer)

Bonus Guest Speaker

- McNeill's Rangers: Raid that Capture Generals Kelley & Crook 1865 (Paul Malone)

Hungry for History: 1864

Stories of the First Taste of Ice Cream

Hear true first-person Civil War accounts of soldiers tasting ice cream for the first time and learn how ice cream was made in 1864.

Purchase raffle tickets for a chance to win an ice cream gift certificate or Annual Reenactment tickets!

Sponsored By:

A & L Scoops and Swirl, Middletown, Va

JB's Ice Cream Shop Stephen City, VA